Ottmar Hörl: Sculpture "Dürer Hare", silver-plated bronze version

€1,100.00

Product no.: IN-769120

Ottmar Hörl's sculptural work deals with the theme of standardisation - of designing everyday objects in the same way. This he does in an extremely humorous way, and his "exhibitions" are more like spectacles. He dedicated his best-known project to the artist Dürer and his world-famous watercolour of a hare. In 2003, no less than 7,000 hares filled the main market square in Nuremberg for the "Large Piece of Hare".

Hörl's plastic multiples are highly sought-after collector's items in the wake of his art projects. As an ars mundi Exclusive Edition, we have produced a numbered and signed special edition of 189 copies each, made of heavy, either gold-plated (24-carat) or fine silver-plated bronze. Size 6 x 11,5 x 15 cm (w/h/d). Weight approx. 0.8 kg. Dürer hare version silver-plated bronze.
