The balancing act of life

Paul Wunderlich's "L'Artiste" takes up the symbol of the wheel of fortune or the wheel of life, which has accompanied European art history since the Renaissance. He consistently transfers the symbolism to the modern age. There is a contrast between the construct of the machine and the organic forms of the human body. There is the neutrality of technology and the passion of the human being. There is an abrupt stillness in the moment of movement. There is the element of adaptation and the element of rebellion.

Bronze sculpture, patinated, partly polished, cast using the Lost-Wax-Process at Fritz Albrecht in Altrandsberg. Limited edition of 90 copies, numbered and signed. Mounted on a bronze plinth. Height 50 cm. Weight approx. 3 kg. Factory number 346.
