Collotype printing, with its reproduction of the finest details without the need for halftone screens, is one of the best processes for reproducing precious originals. Today, only a few studios around the world have mastered it. Thus, for many art connoisseurs, collotype printing is the only alternative to mostly unattainable and unaffordable originals.

Colour collotype in 8 colours. Limited world edition 500 copies. Framed in a handmade gold frame and acid-free passe-partout with a gilded wooden tick, glazed. Size 76 x 87 cm (h/w).
