

Costanzo Mongini: Sculpture "Seduzione - The Seduction", bronze

€2,680.00

Product no.: IN-051252

Elegance, suppleness, and beauty - are characteristics attributed to Mongini's creative power. The choice of his subjects - mysterious cats or perfect female beauty - already shows what the Milanese considers worthy of veneration and to whom he would like to erect a monument. Typical for the creator of the famous bronze portal of Portofino is the snapshot: he captures beings and figures in mid-motion.

Aphrodite, the goddess of love, who was awarded the prize of the most beautiful in the judgement of Paris, also bears the nickname "The Foamborn": At Mongini, her gifted body seems to emerge from the wet element, like a beckoning siren. When she pulls her robe over her head, it looks like a crown of foam on a wave of passion.

Sculpture in patinated bronze, produced by Lost-Wax-Process. Height incl. pedestal approx. 53 cm. Limited edition of 399 copies worldwide.
