

Carl Spitzweg: Sculpture "The Eternal Bridegroom", cast metal version

€640.00

Product no.: IN-474644

Even during his lifetime, "The Eternal Bridegroom" was perhaps the painter's most popular subject: the suitor gallantly hands his beloved a bouquet. At the insistence of his collectors, Spitzweg painted the motif several times in slight variations. Now the motif is available exclusively from ars mundi as a romantic table sculpture. Our sculpture reproduces Spitzweg's original in exact detail, right down to the drapery, hairstyle and flowers. An ideal gift for a loved one, a sincere thank you and a stylish declaration of love!

Sculptor after the oil painting, from 1858-60. Cast by hand. Size 9 x 21,5 x 10 cm (w/h/d). Edition in cast metal with bronze-coloured patina. Patinated and polished by hand.
