The Norwegian painter Edvard Munch was a master at transforming his motifs into symbols for moods and feelings. That not only applies to his most famous works, such as "The Scream" or "Madonna", but also to his landscape paintings. Four of his works represent the seasons. This one is dedicated to spring.

Spring is considered the season of lovers. So Munch painted a couple snuggling together by a lake.
Original: 1911-13, oil on canvas, 70 x 90 cm, privately owned.

Edition lavishly printed on hand-made, heavy 250g Gmund Tactile. Framed in a high-quality golden solid wood frame, glazed. Size 37 x 44 cm (h/w). ars mundi Exclusive Edition.
