

Dieter Finke: Sculpture "Bull" (1995), bronze

€4,680.00

Product no.: IN-242982

One can almost physically feel the stamping of the hooves, dust swirls up, hot breath seems to waft around the viewer: "I want to depict the essence of the animal more than the animal itself," says Dieter Finke. The sculptor masterfully reduces the cultural archetypal symbol, the bull, to its elementary structures.

Sculpture as ars mundi Exclusive Edition made of fine bronze, limited world edition of only 199 copies. Cast using the Lost-Wax-Process, finely polished, patinated, with signature and foundry mark. Size 68 x 29 cm.
