Salvador Dalí:
Picture "The Hallucinogenic Torero" (1968-70), framed

€390.00

Product no.: IN-700023.R1

The picture is a combination of various elements from Dalí's paranoiac-critical period. Dalí presents himself as the contemplating boy in the upper left corner. Dalí places the classical Greek Venus as a sign of love without original sin in a bullfighting stadium, where love fights with modern science. But love prevails.
Original: Dalí Museum, St. Petersburg, Florida.

Our high-quality art reproduction is worked by hand in a patented process on artist canvas and traditionally mounted on a wooden stretcher frame. The motif surface with tactile and visible linen structure and additionally hand-applied brush texture underlines the painting-like effect. Finally, the picture is sealed with an artist's varnish for protection. Limited edition of 499 copies, with a numbered certificate on the back. In handmade real wood gallery frame. Size 72 x 56 cm (h/w).
