

Paul Wunderlich: Sculpture "The Beautiful Gardener", bronze

€11,900.00

Product no.: IN-703546

The formal clarity of the beautiful gardener enhances her presence. Through the volume of the sculpture and its smooth surface, free of all accessories, we recognise the beauty of the material. The shimmering golden bronze catches the light of the surroundings and reflects it in ever new modulations. Plasticity is not only the property of a body but also the play of light. The finely modelled face of the figure takes us back to interpretations of the content. It has an indefinite expression: concentration, desire, renunciation, a look inwards - these are possibilities to project our own dreams onto the work. And the cap of green vine leaves, to which the sculpture owes its name, leads us back from the dream world to reality.

Sculpture in fine bronze, cast using the Lost-Wax-Process. Patinated, partly polished. Edition of 48 copies, numbered and signed. Height 94 cm, weight approx. 17.5 kg. Catalogue raisonné no. 312.
