

Fresco, Roman Painting from Pompeii "Flower Picking Girl", framed

€420.00

Product no.: IN-424252

A flourishing culture and art was destroyed when Vesuvius buried the city of Pompeii in 79 AD. Of particular importance today are the rediscovered mural paintings, especially because of their remarkably good state of preservation. Pictures of illusionistic interior design or pictorial representation of myths and genre scenes.

Fresco, Roman painting from Pompeii "Flower Picking Girl":

This beautiful Roman woman gathers flowers and herbs as offerings and ornaments for a feast at the foot of Mount Vesuvius.

Original: National Archaeological Museum, Naples.

Original Dietz replica in 48 colours on stone! Limited edition of 950 copies. Framed with real wood strip. Size incl. frame approx. 66 x 49.5 cm (h/w).
