

Wolf Gerlach: Sculpture "Mainzelmännchen Det, the Thinker", bronze

€1,680.00

Product no.: IN-767124

50 years of screen experience, more than 40,000 short TV clips and several other "capers". The Mainzelmännchen are German cult figures. They have been part of our everyday lives since 2 April 1963, and many of us have already cherished Anton, Berti, Conni, Det, Edi and Fritzchen as children.

On the occasion of their 50th stage anniversary in 2013, the little cartoon characters are now available as bronze sculptures for our Mainzelmännchen series. They were sculpted by their spiritual father, the graphic artist and stage designer Wolf Gerlach himself and released by him and the public-service television broadcaster ZDF in a strictly limited edition exclusively for ars mundi.

Mainzelmännchen "Det, the Thinker":

Another star in the great succession of Rodin's "Thinker": the clever Det, the Mainzelmännchen thinker. The limited edition of 499 copies in multi-coloured patinated bronze is cast with great craftsmanship using the Lost-Wax-Process. Each copy is created exclusively for ars mundi, features Wolf Gerlach's signature and is individually numbered. Each sculpture is a unique piece. With hand-numbered certificate. Size approx. 14.5 x 15 x 10 cm (w/h/d). Weight approx. 2.4 kg.
