

Benvenuto Cellini: Sculpture "Perseus with the Head of Medusa", bonded bronze

€1,480.00

Product no.: IN-209076

Duke Cosimo de Medici commissioned the Renaissance artist to create the famous bronze statue of Perseus for the Loggia dei Lanzi in Florence, the shining pinnacle of Florentine sculpture at the time. The allegorical statue of liberty is supposed to represent the heroic victory over dark powers achieved with divine assistance. In those days, severed heads were the preferred symbol of such triumphs.

Original: Museo Nazionale del Bargello, Florence. Bronze. Around 1550.

Polymer ars mundi museum replica cast by hand with a bronzed surface. Total height 72 cm.
