

Kurt Arentz: Sculpture "Dove of Peace", bronze

€1,980.00

Product no.: IN-743218

Kurt Arentz's works are neither true-to-life reproductions nor ingenious abstractions, which is why they achieve the most outstanding expressive power. The artist approaches the very essence and the typical character of the animal he has modelled. That also applies to the symbol of world peace, his dove of peace. It is both a symbol and an animal. The artist, who experienced the Second World War as a child, provides his dove with the abstract peace attribute of the globe. At the same time, he keeps the bird's natural shape (shaped in his artistic handwriting).

Sculpture made of fine bronze, cast using the Lost-Wax-Process, patinated by hand and partially gilded. Pedestal of black diabase. Limited edition 499 copies, numbered and signed. Exclusively at ars mundi. Size 20 x 26 x 19 cm (w/h/d), base size 8 x 8 x 8 cm (w/h/d). Weight 4 kg.
