"We live in an absurd anti-time. Values are topsy-turvy. Uglyness is considered honest and worthwhile. Beauty is branded populist kitsch."

"Time, the clock, has become the symbol of pressing deadlines. More than ever before we need to hark back to the course of eternal events in harmony with nature and creation. Timelessness - lasting values, awareness of the cosmos, where there is no up and down, no right and left, no clockwise or counter-clockwise. Time should create new life, slowly, spiraloidally, vegetatively and surely and creatively. Time should not destroy the time before and cause panic about the time of tomorrow, which will be dead the day after tomorrow. The measurement of time is a human, bogus idea and invention, as is the straight line, but eternity and the eternal course of events are all there is." (Hundertwasser, 1990)

Friedensreich Hundertwasser spent his entire life exploring nature as a partner of humankind and advocated for a peace treaty with nature. Time Finder Soul Tree reflects the longing for life, for beauty in harmony with nature.
