

Claude Monet: Picture "Water Lilies I" (Nymphéas 1914-17), framed

€298.00

Product no.: IN-464916

Claude Monet's Water Lilies pictures are among the most famous paintings of Impressionism and the most sought-after and expensive paintings in the world. Monet (1840-1926) used the technique of "short brushstrokes" and perfected it. With this technique, he succeeded in capturing the flickering of the air over the water in a unique way. Original: Oil on canvas, Musée Marmottan - Claude Monet, Paris.

For a detailed reproduction, the Monet painting was transferred directly onto artist canvas using the colour-brilliant Fine Art Giclée process and mounted on a wooden stretcher frame like an original oil painting. With the wooden canvas wedges, the canvas can be re-stretched in case of temperature and humidity fluctuations. The elegant solid hand-glided wood frame completes the look perfectly. Framed in a silver solid wood frame. Size 64 x 64 cm. ars mundi Exclusive Edition.
