

Caspar David Friedrich: Picture "View of a Harbour" (c. 1815/16), framed

€490.00

Product no.: IN-944832

In his meticulously painted artwork, Friedrich achieved an incomparable metaphysical transparency: In 1815, as part of the Congress of Vienna, Western Pomerania came under Prussian rule. Thus, Friedrich's romantic harbour scene is also an allegory of the historical event: In the foreground, three people are seen in a rowboat making their way toward a ship on the horizon with a Swedish flag, amid anchored sailboats. The entire scene is immersed in a black-red-gold colour scheme: Analogous to the new German flag, these colours represent honour, freedom and fatherland.

Original: Around 1815/16, oil on canvas, 90 x 71 cm, Charlottenhof Palace, Potsdam.

Edition transferred to artist's canvas in Fine Art Giclée process and stretched on stretcher frame. Limited edition of 980 copies, numbered, with certificate. Framed in handmade, golden solid wood frame. Size 71 x 57 cm (h/w). ars mundi Exclusive Edition.
