

Paul Klee: Picture "View of St. Germain" (1914), framed

€390.00

Product no.: IN-750748

Klee's "View of St. Germain" was created during a period of intense interest in Cubism and present Klee on the verge of abstraction - the landscape and houses are dissolved into graphic elements that are precisely related to one another in composition. Yet the village remains recognisable as such.

Original: Columbus Museum of Art, Ohio.

Worked on artist's canvas using the digital fine art process and stretched by hand on a wooden stretcher frame. Framed in handmade gallery frame. Limited edition of 499 copies, with a numbered certificate on the back. Size 87 x 72 cm. Exclusively at ars mundi.
