

Peter Hohberger: Sculpture "Aglaea", artificial marble version

€1,280.00

Product no.: IN-700486

Hohberger's sculpture "Aglaea" combines the myth of the Graces, who, as Charites, were the goddesses of grace in Greek mythology. "Aglaea" (= "the shining") was the hot-blooded wife of Vulcanus. According to the Greek conception, the Graces give life its true pleasures. In their company, there is always joy, joking and cheerfulness. Accompanied by Venus, Bacchus and Apollo, they ensure that the beloved becomes truly charming to the lover, the wife to the husband - and thus symbolise the joys of love par excellence.

Limited Original Editions in two versions. Size 34 x 18 x 23 cm (h/w/d). Edition in white artificial marble. Polymer cast, patinated by hand. Limited edition of 299 copies, numbered and signed. Weight approx. 3 kg. Exclusively at ars mundi.
