

Otto Waalkes: Sculpture "Ottifant", bronze

€1,880.00

Product no.: IN-707025

Otto Waalkes is not only a German comedian, singer and actor he is also a gifted draughtsman and caricaturist (and incidentally a graduate of the Hochschule für bildende Künste in Hamburg). His best-known caricature is the Ottifant. He originally designed it as a logo for his own record company, Rüssl Räckords, but over time the pachyderm became a trademark, and it even became Otto's alter ego. It has the same playful smile and the same mischievous look. In a nutshell, it is a portrait of the artist as a young Ottifant. Our edition made of fine bronze sets a small monument to the Ottifant and the great comedian Otto Waalkes.

Exclusively at ars mundi: Sculpture of the famous Ottifant in fine bronze, elaborately cast using the Lost-Wax-Process. Patinated, partially polished. Limited to 980 numbered and signed copies. Size 19.5 x 12 x 20 cm (h/w/d), weight approx. 3.5 kg. A detailed, hand-numbered certificate is enclosed.
