

Friedensreich Hundertwasser: Picture "(745) Blobs Grow in Beloved Gardens", framed

€330.00

Product no.: IN-782411.R1

Hundertwasser's use of colour is one of the things that makes his work so unique. He uses it instinctively (according to the well-known art historian Wieland Schmied) and achieves the greatest possible effect with somnambulist certainty. The deep black lacquered solid wood frame and the black passe-partout with white bevelled edge make Hundertwasser's colours shine brightly. High-quality reproduction in 7 to 9 colours, refined in an embossing process with highly light-refracting metal foil and partially coated with partial UV varnish. Size 59 x 59 cm.
