

Paul Wunderlich: Sculpture "Wild Boar", cast metal

€1,400.00

Product no.: IN-478064

Odysseus, Circe and the pigs: Odysseus had many adventures on his way home to his wife Penelope. Even before he escaped the influence of the beautiful sorceress Circe by trickery, he had to stand by his companions. For Circe had turned them into pigs. Paul Wunderlich was inspired by Homer's story and created a modern sculpture, especially for it.

Sculpture in cast metal with old silver patina. Limited edition 900 copies, numbered and signed. Cast by hand using the Lost-Wax-Process. Depth 2 cm, height 19 cm, width 23 cm. Weight 5.5 kg.
