

Leo Wirth: Garden sculpture "Flute Player", bronze

€7,980.00

Product no.: IN-903219

Leo Wirth works formally realistically, one could even say highly realistically. His figures are often completely contemporaries, including fashionable details. At the same time, he has an unmistakable eye for what is typical, almost clichéd, in our everyday lives and, last but not least, a good sense of humour.

However, his "Flute Player" shows another side of Wirth's work: his ability to express himself poetically. It is also realistic in its execution (for example, the clothing of the boy playing the flute is not coincidentally reminiscent of Tyrolean traditional costume). Nevertheless, the flute player enchants the viewer - who almost believes he can hear the sound of the flute: he listens deeply within himself and concentrates completely on his flute playing with closed eyes.

Sculpture in bronze, cast using the Lost-Wax-Process, chiselled and patinated by hand. Limited to 49 numbered and signed copies. Size 68 x 26 x 39 cm (w/h/d), weight approx. 24.5 kg.
