

Paul Klee: Picture "Camel in Rhythmic Landscape With Trees" (1920)

€590.00

Product no.: IN-847108

It is no coincidence that Klee's "Camel" is one of his major works. It is a perfect example of the originality of the artist, who went his very own way in the midst of a seething artistic era. The picture is nothing and everything at the same time. It is representational - the camel is clearly recognisable. It is abstract in the assignment of colour planes and the graphic elements of circle and line. They can easily be understood as trees but also as musical notation - showing the camel's swaying gait through a score - a picture that can be seen and "heard".

Original: Kunstsammlung Nordrhein-Westfalen in Düsseldorf.

High-quality reproduction on Alu-Dibond behind 3 mm thick acrylic glass, with mounting. Size 120 x 80 cm (h/w). Due to the smooth surface, mirror effects may occur depending on the incidence of light.
