The peace symbol is not only a worldwide emblem of peace but - thanks to many of his pictures that revolve around this symbol in different colours, shapes and fillings - it has also become a symbol of Rizzi. For him, respectful interaction between people of different origins, religions or cultures was always a matter of the heart. Rizzi considered the coexistence of people in his home city of New York to be exemplary.

People of different skin colours often hug each other in his pictures. His picture "Give Peace a Chance", which was the inspiration for this carpet, expresses this attitude colourfully and cheerfully.
