

Robert Delaunay: Stick umbrella "Formes Circulaires" (1912)

€58.00

Product no.: IN-875907

The various "Formes circulaires" he began producing in 1912 represent a further development of his "Fenêtre" series (window pictures) and thus mark the beginning of abstract painting in France. Multi-coloured circular discs, on top of each other and inside each other, form a moving and at the same time harmonious composition with rings and coloured areas.

Automatic umbrella, polyester canopy, fibreglass frame. Handle and shaft in black plastic. Length 90 cm. Diameter umbrella 100 cm. ars mundi Exclusive Edition.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/robert-delaunay-stick-umbrella-formes-circulaires-1912-875907/>