

Head of the Medusa

€490.00

Product no.: IN-295683

Original: Glyptothek Munich. Anyone who looked into her snake-ringed face turned to stone. Perseus nevertheless succeeded in cutting off her head: he saw Medusa's reflection in the shining round of his bright shield and cut off her head with a sickle sword. This impressive Medusa's head originally belonged to a statue of Athena by the ancient sculptor Phidias.

Roman copy of a statue of Athena by Phidias. Polymer ars mundi museum replica, cast by hand, in size 20 x 17 x 11 cm with black diabase base 7.5 x 18 x 7.5 cm (w/h/d).
