Magical tales from the realm of myths and legends: For the Greeks, nature was inhabited and ruled by nature spirits everywhere. Nymphs and satyrs lived in the forests and groves and by rivers and springs. They have always been among the most popular motifs in the history of art; their trail stretches from Greek vase depictions to contemporary art. Above all, the fauns symbolise pleasure and uninhibited joie de vivre.

"Flute Player": He is a late descendant of all the fauns and cloven-footed nature spirits and, sitting lonely in the garden, conjures them up with his flute playing. Bronze sculpture, cast using the Lost-Wax-Process, chiselled and patinated by hand. Size 40 x 16 x 12 cm (h/w/d). Weight approx. 3 kg.
