Product no.: IN-209152.R1

The neo-dadaist Ben Vautier, born in Naples in 1935, became particularly famous for his "écritures": pictures with sentences and statements reflecting his view of the world moved into the world's major collections and museums. With the "Joker", he not only claims the role of the joker for himself and his art but, at the same time, demands that art - wherever it may be encountered - be given absolute priority.
