

Gustav Klimt: Picture "Judith I" (1901), framed

€390.00

Product no.: IN-694611.R1

The Old Testament tells the story of the beautiful and devout widow, Judith. She marches unarmed into the army camp of the Nebuchadnezzar general Holofernes and beheads him with his sword - a popular motif in art history. Klimt's famous "Golden Judith" is a modern "femme fatale" who through her charms, is capable of killing some men.

Original: Oil on canvas, Österreichische Galerie Belvedere, Vienna.
