

Petra Waszak: Necklace "Goethe's Colour Circle"

€168.00

Product no.: IN-894294

In 1810, Goethe's "Theory of Colours" was published. The colour wheel he designed the year before is now part of the Freies Deutsches Hochstift exhibition and served as an inspiration for the renowned jewellery designer Petra Waszak to create her enamelled piece of jewellery made of 24-carat gold-plated brass. Adjustable length 42-49 cm, lobster clasp. Diameter of pendant 4 cm.
