"... Gleaming shimmering gold everywhere!" This is how the British Egyptologist Howard Carter described the first glimpse of his discovery of Tutankhamun's burial chamber in 1922. The enigmatic fate of the ancient Egyptian pharaoh fascinates us to this day. The jewellery set, shimmering in a warm golden hue, artfully depicts the noble profile of the young king on a sun-like disc of gilded brass.

Clip-on earrings in 24-carat gold-plated brass. Diameter 2.5 cm each.

The jewellery set includes a necklace and clip-on earrings.
