

RobiN: Sculpture "Till Eulenspiegel", bronze

€6,280.00

Product no.: IN-305839

There is truth in laughter! RobiN shows Eulenspiegel holding up a mirror to the times with skill and quick-wittedness. Till Eulenspiegel was the model for numerous poems from Hans Sachs to Gerhart Hauptmann. He was a vagabond from Braunschweig, Germany. Eulenspiegel's surname translates to "owl-mirror". He put on his jester's cap to play practical jokes on his contemporaries, at every turn exposing vices. The independent outsider took pleasure in duping all the know-it-alls and parodying their language. Although his gravestone is in Mölln in Holstein, he is as alive as ever: his name entered the German language with the word "Eulenspiegeleien" (eng: pranks) and became a generic term in the Romance-speaking world: joker in French, for example, is called "espiègle".

ars mundi Exclusive Edition as a bronze sculpture from the series "Fairy Tales - Myths - Legends". Cast by hand using the Lost-Wax-Process. Limited edition of 99 copies, numbered and signed. Height 38 cm.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/robin-sculpture-till-eulenspiegel-bronze-305839/>