

Andreas Weische: Picture "The Falcon", on stretcher frame

€450.00

Product no.: IN-887718.KR

The picture of the falcon unites very different meanings, some of which are thousands of years old. In ancient Egypt, the (Horus) falcon symbolised the god of the sky and light. In numerous cultures, it was praised for its beauty. Its sharp eyes made it the noble hunting animal of crowned heads.

Even in the more recent history, the extremely fast falcon inspired the name of cars and aeroplanes - in other words, throughout the ages, it has been perceived not only as a bird but also as a kind of mirror into which people projected their wishes and dreams.

High-quality Fine Art Giclée museum reproduction in 7 colours on artist's cotton canvas. Limited to 199 copies. Signed and numbered by the artist on the back. Stretched like an original painting on a wooden stretcher frame (adjustable with wedges for re-stretching). Size 80 x 80 cm. ars mundi Exclusive Edition.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/andreas-weische-picture-the-falcon-on-stretcher-frame-887718-kr/>