

Lovis Corinth: Picture "Walchensee in Winter" (1923), white and golden framed version

€490.00

Product no.: IN-940008

From 1919 onwards, Lovis Corinth (1858-1925) found a retreat in Urfeld above Lake Walchen, which inspired him for numerous works of his late period. This is how his wife Charlotte Berend-Corinth describes how much the place impressed him: "Lovis was immediately gripped by the beauty of the landscape - by the magic of the Walchensee, the mountain scenery, the light and the air". Original: 1923, oil on canvas, 70 x 90 cm, Städel Museum, Frankfurt am Main.

Edition transferred to artist's canvas in Fine Art Giclée process and stretched on a stretcher frame. Limited edition of 980 copies, numbered, with certificate. Framed in a handmade, white-golden solid wood frame. Size approx. 63.5 x 79.5 cm (h/w). ars mundi Exclusive Edition.
