

Max Pechstein: Picture "Sunset at Leba's Port" (1926), framed

€450.00

Product no.: IN-860934

Before the picture "Sunset at Leba's Port" was painted in 1926, it was already famous as a drawing. It shows the port as a place of protection and security. However, at the same time, the reflection of the setting sun on the surface of the water seems like a way out. In this way, the motif takes on a deeper, symbolic meaning; the port represents home and departure.
