

Marina Krasnitskaya: Picture "Judith Holding the Sun", framed

€698.00

Product no.: IN-828923.R1

A picture of family security. Krasnitskaya took inspiration for this painting from the novel "The Loves of Judith" by the Israeli writer Meir Shalev and the protagonist. The artist portrays Judith as having a strong personality. In her hands, she firmly holds a sun. The sun symbolises the everyday life of her family, with all its ups and downs.

Reproduced using the Fine Art Giclée process directly onto 100% cotton artist canvas and mounted on a stretcher frame. Limited edition of 199 copies, numbered and signed by hand on the back. Stretcher frame size 80 x 80 cm. Framed in a solid wood shadow gap frame. Size 83.5 x 83.5 cm (h/w). ars mundi Exclusive Edition.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/marina-krasnitskaya-picture-judith-holding-the-sun-framed-828923-r1/>