

Robert Delaunay: Silk scarf "Formes Circulaires" (1912)

€98.00

Product no.: IN-875904

The various "Formes circulaires" he began producing in 1912 represent a further development of his "Fenêtre" series (window pictures) and thus mark the beginning of abstract painting in France. Multi-coloured circular discs, on top of each other and inside each other, form a moving and at the same time harmonious composition with rings and coloured areas. Silk satin, 100% silk. Size 180 x 42 cm. ars mundi Exclusive Edition.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/robert-delaunay-silk-scarf-formes-circulaires-1912-875904/>