

Claude Monet:
Set of Two Wall Objects, glass

€140.00

Product no.: IN-745906

When an Impressionist turns into a gardener, his choice of plants corresponds to his brush and palette: Monet chose those for his ornamental garden in Giverny. The blossoms and shapes of these plants delighted him throughout all seasons of the year. There, the French Impressionist also discovered the motifs for his famous "Nympheas", his water lily paintings - small islands of blossoms and leaves amid shimmering water and landscape.

Two particularly high-quality and light-fast reproductions on glass. The glass plates are attached with special spacers (12 mm) and appear to float freely in front of the wall. Size 30 x 30 x 1.2 cm (h/w/d).

Glass picture "Iris Bed in Monet's Garden": Original: Oil on canvas, Musée d'Orsay, Paris.
Glass picture "Yellow Water Lilies and Agapanthus": Original: Oil on canvas, Musée Marmottan, Paris.
