

Alexej von Jawlensky: Picture "Abstract Head" (c. 1920)

€350.00

Product no.: IN-875322

The human countenance in many variations - mostly with strong, even luminous colours - had been a focus of his work. With the abstract or "saintly" heads, he became more restrained in terms of colour and reduced the subject of the portrait to the face itself. They seem de-individualised without losing expressiveness. In progressive abstraction, they lead to an iconic form, which in the sequence seems like a search for an unattainable divine archetype.

Original: Oil on cardboard, on permanent loan from the Baumgart-Möller Collection, E.-L. Kirchner Foundation, Davos, Kirchner Museum.

Reproduction on Alu-Dibond behind 3 mm thick acrylic glass. Size 60 x 45 cm (h/w). Suspension device is included. Due to the smooth surface, mirror effects may occur depending on the incidence of light.
