€1,880.00

Product no.: IN-938221

"The bronze sculpture of the 'Seated Woman' testifies to the great interest in different art techniques and the accompanying joy in experimenting with materials of the artist August Macke, who is known today in particular as a painter and draughtsman. The closed posture and the gaze directed into the indefinite convey inner contentment and tranquillity emanating from the sitter, which is also expressed in Macke's drawings and paintings. This basic mood fully corresponds to the artist's idea of a peaceful existence." (Dr Arnhold, Museum Director, LWL Museum of Art and Culture, Münster)
