

Thomas Schöne: Sculpture "Eva", bronze version

€3,900.00

Product no.: IN-804964

It is one of the most famous stories of all, and it has been captured in art history countless times: The story of Adam and Eve.

The graphic artist and sculptor Thomas Schöne was born in 1961 and has been successful as a painter, draughtsman, illustrator and digital artist in many artistic disciplines. He tells the famous story of the moment of temptation, using the traditional elements of the story of the motif while concentrating solely on the figure of Eve.

Schöne shows her as the epitome of female beauty, even sensuality. In the biblical text, the serpent hides in the tree of knowledge. However, for this depiction, it is already entwining Eve... The inevitable end of the innocent, carefree life in paradise approaches.

ars mundi Exclusive Edition. Edition in bronze. Cast using the Lost-Wax-Process. Limited edition of 99 copies. Numbered, signed and hallmarked with the foundry stamp. Height 38 cm, base diameter approx. 12 cm. Weight 3.6 kg.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/thomas-schoene-sculpture-eva-bronze-version-804964/>