

Robert Delaunay: Picture "The Towers of Laon" (1912), framed

€330.00

Product no.: IN-751398

Delaunay did his military service in the small northern French town of Laon with its legendary architectural monuments. The proximity to his Eiffel Tower series is still recognisable. But the coloured areas of the landscape are already almost in one plane. A prelude to the "Fenêtre" pictures.

Original: 1912, oil on canvas, Kunsthalle Hamburg.

Brilliant Reproduced using the Fine Art Giclée process directly on an artist's canvas (100% cotton), on a stretcher frame. Valuable solid wood framing in silver with a shadow gap. Limited to 499 copies, with a numbered certificate. Size 64 x 74 cm.
