€1,080.00

Product no.: IN-701807

The designer, couturier and entrepreneur Emilie Louise Flöge was a fascinating personality of the Fin de Siècle and Gustav Klimt's partner. Klimt portrayed this icon of Art Nouveau in a self-designed dress that was considered revolutionary women's fashion.

Klimt frequently painted Emilie Flöge. In 1903, for the very first time, the picture was exposed to the public. However, she did not identify with this picture because it resembled a beautiful, bored lady of Viennese society rather than the businesswoman with her own career - who she really was.

Original: 1902, oil on canvas, Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna.
