

"Bust of the Charioteer of Delphi" (reduction), cast hand-painted

€660.00

Product no.: IN-289449

The sculpture of the charioteer is one of the most famous works of Greek art. Art historians believe that it belongs to a larger group of statuary, including a quadriga, that Hieron of Syracuse donated to the sanctuary of Apollo as a gift.

Original: Museum, Delphi, Early Classical, c. 475 BC.

Polymer ars mundi museum replica, cast by hand. Reduction. Hand-painted and finely patinated. Height incl. marble pedestal: approx. 34 cm.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/bust-of-the-charioteer-of-delphi-reduction-cast-hand-painted-289449/>