

RobiN:

Sculpture "Don Quixote, the Knight of the Woeful Countenance", bronze

€5,800.00

Product no.: IN-338799

Don Quixote, the protagonist from the national epic by Miguel de Cervantes (1547-1616), is still the greatest Spanish hero of all times: With pride, honour and passion, he leaves his everyday life behind and uses his imagination to immerse himself in a world full of adventure. Without further ado, he digs out an old rusty suit of armour appoints his old horse as the warhorse Rosinante and himself as a knight. Only his loyal servant Sancho Panza remains steadfastly faithful to him...

Now RobiN has created another masterpiece from the series "Fairy Tales, Myths and Legends": His sculpture "Don Quixote" is a true work of art full of expression and passion, the culmination of his artistic work to date.

Sculpture made of bronze, cast by hand using the Lost-Wax-Process, partly patinated green, partly polished by hand. With leather straps as reins and a wooden lance. ars mundi Exclusive Edition in a limited edition of 199 copies, numbered and signed. Size 42 x 45 x 16 cm (w/h/d), lance length 47 cm.

Product link: <https://www.arsmundi.de/en/robin-sculpture-don-quixote-the-knight-of-the-woeful-countenance-bronze-338799/>