

Salvador Dalí: Picture "Les Éléphants" (1948), framed

€440.00

Product no.: IN-687534

The mighty pachyderms in "Les Éléphants" are, just like the obelisks they carry on their backs, an expression of pharaonic and absolute state power. On elongated legs, they rise to the sky, which is tinted red by the sunset. They have almost lost their touch with the ground. The powers come from different sides, but they resemble each other in every detail: the omnipotence is already crumbling, frozen in stone and slightly dusty. The real life takes place on the ground: An angel meets the human being on foot on his way to the horizon.

Original privately owned.

High-quality reproduction using the Fine Art Giclée process, worked by hand on an artist's canvas made of 100% cotton and stretched traditionally on a real wooden stretcher frame like an original painting. The surface of the motif is characterised by a fine canvas structure that can be felt and seen, which has been sealed by hand with varnish. Framed in a noble solid wood frame. Size 62 x 71 cm (h/w).
