

Paul Wunderlich: Sculptural group "The Family", bronze

€5,900.00

Product no.: IN-719866

The three slender, even bronze sculptures form a harmonious trio, which nevertheless does not conceal the characteristics of each individual sculpture. All three figurines of the ensemble resemble each other, yet they are well distinguishable in character. Wunderlich has created a subtle form: a sweeping waisted upper body flows into a flattering spherical element and continues in a long-fitting dress. The large figurine has a reseda green patina and a finely textured surface. The medium figurine has a reddish-brown patina and is structured by regular lines. The youngest member of the family wears a smooth robe with a golden sheen.

An ensemble of three bronzes, patinated in different shades, partly polished. Cast using the Lost-Wax-Process. Edition of 99 copies, numbered and signed.

Large sculpture: Height 57 cm. Weight 4.3 kg.
Medium sculpture: Height 41 cm. Weight 2.2 kg.
Small sculpture: Height 27.5 cm. Weight 1.6 kg.
