

Valerie Otte: Sculpture "Thinking of You", version bronze golden

€2,980.00

Product no.: IN-902967

Valerie Otte's bronze figures are rarely portraits but rather sensitive character studies. The figures do not pose but instead, enable the viewer to look at people to whom we involuntarily ascribe an emotional inner life.

Otte's figures are entirely at peace with themselves so that the viewers believe they are witnessing an intimate moment. At the same time, they are "present in the world", which is particularly evident in her work "Thinking of You": The young woman sits on a chair, lost in thought - perhaps in her quiet flat, perhaps in a busy café - and gazes pensively at her phone. Maybe she is still hesitating to call a dear person, who she is missing, possibly even looking at a photo of them. Without a doubt, however, her thoughts are connected to the outside world. Valerie Otte allows the viewer to have a deep insight into the world of her protagonist's thoughts.
