

Earrings "Egyptian Revival"

€98.00

Product no.: IN-910257

In the mid 19th century, the adaptation of antique jewellery from Egypt became very popular in Europe. The Castellani workshop in Naples, which Henry Walters visited in 1909, was famous for this type of jewellery.

Earrings made of tin gold-plated with lapis lazuli, inspired by jewellery made in the Castellani workshop. In Ancient Egypt, lapis lazuli was considered a sacred stone and a symbol of truth. From the collection of the Walters Art Museum. Size 4 x 1.5 cm (h/w) each.
