

Angeles Anglada: Sculpture "Sincerity", cast stone look

€298.00

Product no.: IN-734287

Equality is little more than an aspiration in many fields - also in art. Da Vinci's famous study of human proportions, for example, shows - a man. Angeles Anglada, born in 1965 in Zaragoza and meanwhile exhibited in more than 30 countries, quotes him but differs from him in the crucial point: here, man and woman stand opposite each other as equals.

Sculpture made of polymer cast in artificial stone with green patina. Size 23.5 x 23.5 x 6.5 cm (w/h/d).
